The entire procedure is now completely online, and students are not required to submit any hard copy or printed affidavit to the college.

This revision has been introduced to conserve paper, protect the environment, and to reduce the burden and complications for all stakeholders.

All students of Charampa Higher Secondary School and Charampa Mahavidyalaya, Charampa, Dist. Bhadrak are informed that:

1. The Anti-Ragging Undertaking must be filled online only.
2. The college will NOT accept Anti-Ragging Undertakings in hard copy/printed form or notarized affidavits.
3. Students are not required to print or sign any affidavit as was done earlier.

Soft copies of Anti-Ragging Posters have been displayed at prominent locations in the college premises such as the Admission Centre, Departments, Library, Canteen, etc., for the awareness and well-being of students.
